Dear Marc:

The shareholders of Infusion Solutions wish to thank you for helping to facilitate and complete the successful sale of our business.

Paragon's expertise was well recognized during the process. From the engagement to the close, your in-depth knowledge and expertise regarding the healthcare business was evident.

Your personal support during the process was also greatly appreciated. You were available at all times to walk me through the process and eventually make a complex transaction look relatively simple. To a great degree, this is a testament to your thorough knowledge and understanding of the healthcare industry. From early on, it was clear to me that you knew what you were talking about. Your entire team displayed a collective talent and intuitive understanding regarding mergers, acquisitions, healthcare and "human nature" that I have not personally seen in over thirty years in healthcare. The skill set of your team is in a nutshell...impressive.

I will not hesitate to recommend anyone interested in selling his or her business contact you and your team.

The shareholders of Infusion Solutions wish to once again thank you for a job well done. Without a doubt, you and your team made this deal happen.

Respectfully Yours,

J. Patrick Dulany
Chief Operating Officer/General Counsel
Infusion Solutions, Inc.
